

What is ACEP?

The American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) is the first and largest professional organization of emergency medicine physicians in the United States. It was founded in 1968. In August 2018, ACEP had over 39,000 members.

What is North Dakota ACEP?

The North Dakota Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians is the local chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians. North Dakota ACEP is dedicated to advancing excellence in emergency care, and advocating for emergency physicians, their patients and the health of North Dakota communities.

How many members does North Dakota ACEP have?

Currently, membership is comprised of around 55 North Dakota emergency physicians.

Can you be a member of the North Dakota Chapter independently of membership in the national organization?

North Dakota ACEP Bylaws require membership in the American College of Emergency Physicians.

Who can be a member of ACEP/North Dakota ACEP?

Active membership in ACEP is available to physician emergency specialists who meet one of the following requirements:

- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency accredited by the Accreditation Council on Graduate Medical Education (ACGME)
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine subspecialty-training program accredited by ACGME
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency training program accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA)
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency program approved by an ACEP-recognized accrediting body in a foreign country
- Certification by an emergency medicine certifying body recognized by ACEP
- Membership categories are also available for Emergency Medicine Residents, Medical Students, and Interns

How often does the North Dakota ACEP Board of Directors meet?

The North Dakota Board of Directors typically meets twice a year and holds member benefit events in conjunction with National ACEP Events.

Who can attend North Dakota ACEP quarterly meetings?

Any North Dakota member in good standing may attend North Dakota Chapter meetings. Non-members, Residents and Medical Students wishing to attend these meetings must contact the North Dakota Chapter in advance for approval.